Hong Kong Office

K3 Legal Hong Kong, led by Director, Margaret Chen, connects businesses, both ways, between Hong Kong, Mainland China and New Zealand.

Backed by K3 Legal New Zealand and a network of trusted associates in Hong Kong, Margaret will work to understand the business and their needs, to connect them with the right people to get them started on the right foot.

Margaret is fluent in English and Mandarin. Margaret works in the areas of corporate and commercial law, immigration, employment, overseas investment, trusts and estates, litigation and family law.

Margaret is also a qualified mediator and arbitrator.

Chinese Team

Our firm has a strong reputation among the local Chinese community across New Zealand, particularly in Auckland.

Unlike other firms, we don't have an isolated China desk and we are not a Chinese firm.

The Chinese community receive support from a strong team of Chinese lawyers, fluent in Mandarin and English, with an understanding of both cultures – entrenched as part of the wider firm, with the backing of NZ's leading legal practitioners.

Korean Team

K3 Legal's Korean Lawyers are well-versed in Korean culture and the New Zealand legal system, and have great connections throughout the NZ business and legal communities.

The support of our wider legal team means the New Zealand Korean community get the best of both worlds, working with a lawyer who understands them and their situation, coupled with sound advice.

Our team are quickly building status, with involvement in the community, regularly being sought for comment among the Korean publications and also within the legal profession, being referred to assist by some of New Zealand's larger firms.
